Notes for DAVID CHITTICK:

Name and background provided by Willaim Forsythe Chittick . Family comes from Fermanagh and Londonderry. (note possib le connection to Yardley's line) David and Mary Ann came over on the Leslie Gualt. Ships manifest say s left Londonderry Apr. 15, 1834 arrived Saint John, NB Jun e 4, 1834, Psng # 100 plus added after ship cleared customs . David #100 and Mary Anne #101 suggests they were marrie d prior to emigrating - passenger manifest gave Stabane a s their residence, but WFC doesn't think that was the case : Straban is immediately adjacent to Londonderry and he fee ls that is where David & Mary Ann probably got married quic kly by a J.P. so they could get hurriedly on board the boat ". LDS records state marriage was in Anagance, NB circa 18 38. They settled in Studholm Parish and in 1851.

Notes from Roy Scott Taylor - They were 18 years of age on arrival in Canada, Methodist and their Irish origin was reported to be Strabane in County Tyrone.
